Section 149 of the Act inter alia stipulates the criteria of independence should a company propose to appoint an independent director on its Board. As per the said Section 149, an independent director can hold office for a term up to 5 (five) consecutive years on the Board of a company and he shall not be included in the total number of directors for retirement by rotation.

The Company has received a declaration from Mr. Manish Maskara that he meets with the criteria of independence as prescribed both under sub-section (6) of Section 149 of the Act .Mr. Manish Maskara possesses appropriate skills, experience and knowledge, inter alia, in the field of finance.

In the opinion of the Board, Mr. Manish Maskara fulfills the conditions for his appointment as an Independent Director as specified in the Act and is independent of the management.

Except Mr. Manish Maskara, being an appointee, none of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel of the company and their relatives is concerned or interested, financial or otherwise, in the resolution set out at Item no. 4

ITEM NO. 5

The Articles of Association of the company as currently in force was adopted pursuant to the provisions under the Companies Act, 1956. The reference to specific sections of the Companies Act, 1956 in the existing Articles of Association may no longer be in conformity with the Companies Act, 2013 and also as per Companies Amendment Rules 2015. Considering that substantive sections of the Companies Act, 2013 which deal with the general working of the Companies stand notified, it is proposed to amend the existing Articles of Association to align it with the provisions of Companies Act, 2013 including rules framed thereunder and adoption of specific sections of Table – F of Schedule I of the Companies Act, 2013 which sets out to the model articles of association for a company limited by shares.

Some of the Articles of the existing Articles of Association of the Company require alteration or deletions, material changes. Certain provisions of existing Articles of Association have been simplified by providing reference to relevant Sections to the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules framed there under, to avoid repetition in it entirety.

The proposed new draft of Articles of Association is uploaded in the Company's website at www.rubytraders.co.in for perusal by the shareholders. The amendments inter alia include (i) appointment of independent and Women Directors and Key Managerial Personnel (ii) communication through electronic media (iii) to omit Common seal(iv) aligning with new Act and empowering the Company/Board to do some acts, which require Article permission etc.

A copy of the proposed new set of the articles of association of the Company would be available for inspection at the registered office of the Company on all working days except Saturdays and Public Holidays from between 10.00 A.M and 6.00 P.M upto the date of Annual General Meeting of the Company.

None of the Directors / Key Managerial Personnel of the Company / their relatives are, in any way, concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the Special Resolution set out at Item No.5 of the Notice.

The Board commends the Special Resolution set out at Item No. 5 of the Notice for approval by the shareholders.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT*To the Members of M/s. Ruby Traders & Exporters Limited Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of M/s. Ruby Traders & Exporters Limited which comprises the balance sheet as at 31st March 2015, the statements of profit and loss and the cash flow statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in Section 134(5) of the Companies Act, 2013 with respect to the preparation and presentations of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act, read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. This responsibility also includes the maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We have taken into account the provisions of the Act, the accounting and auditing standards and matters which are required to be included in the audit report under the provisions of the Act and Rules made there under.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing specified under Section 143(10) of the Act. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and the disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatements of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal financial control relevant to the Company's preparation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by the Company's Directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- a) In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31st March, 2015;

RUBY TRADERS & EXPORTERS LIMITED*CIN : L51909WB1981PLC033779*Notes forming part of the Financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2015*1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES :*a. BASIS OF PREPARATION

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (Indian GAAP) in compliance with the Accounting Standards notified under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 (as amended) and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis under the historical cost convention. Further in view of the revised schedule VI of the Companies Act, the company has also reclassified the previous year figures in accordance with the requirements applicable for the current year

b. GENERAL

The company follows the accrual method of accounting. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the historical cost convention and in accordance with. Expenses are accounted on their accrual with necessary provision for all known liabilities and losses.

c. USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements requires estimates and assumptions to be made that affect the required amount of assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Difference between the actual amounts and the estimates are recognised in the period in which the results are known/materialised.

d. FIXED ASSETS

Fixed assets are stated at cost including taxes, duties, freight, insurance etc. related to acquisition and installation.

e. DEPRECIATION

Depreciation is provided to the extent of depreciable amount on written Down Value (WDV) at the rates and method prescribed in the Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 and on pro rata basis for the additions / deletions during the year.

f. INVENTORIES

There are no inventories lying with the company at the end of the period. Earlier, inventories were valued at lower of Cost or NRV.

g. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue is recognized and expenditure is accounted for on their accrual.

h. PROVISIONS, CONTINGENT LIABILITIES & CONTINGENT ASSETS

Provisions involving substantial degree of estimation in measurement are recognised when there is a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that there will be an outflow of resources. Contingent Liabilities are disclosed when the company has possible obligation or a present obligation and it is probable that a cash flow will not be required to settle the obligation. Contingent Assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements.

RUBY TRADERS & EXPORTERS LIMITED*CIN : L51909WB1981PLC033779*Notes forming part of the Financial Statements for the year ended March 31, 2015*i. INVESTMENTS

Investments that are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than one year, are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments.

Current Investments are stated at lower of cost or market rate on individual investment basis. Long Term Investments are considered "at cost", unless there is other than temporary decline in value thereof, in which case, adequate provision is made against such diminution in the value of investments.

j. EMPLOYEE BENEFITSi. Gratuity:

The liability for gratuity has not been provided as per the provisions of Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 since no employee of the company is eligible for such benefits during the year.

ii. Provident Fund:

The provisions of the Employees Provident Fund are not applicable to the company since the number of employees employed during the year were less than the minimum prescribed for the benefits.

iii. LeaveSalary:

In respect of Leave Salary, the same is accounted as and when the liability arises in accordance with the provision of law governing the establishment.

k. TAXATION

Taxes on Income are accrued in the same period as the revenue and the expenses to which they relate. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent there is a virtual certainty of its realization.

l. IMPAIRMENT OF ASSETS

As at Balance Sheet Date, the carrying amount of assets is tested for impairment so as to determine:

- a. Provision for Impairment Loss, if any, required or
- b. The reversal, if any, required of impairment loss recognized in previous periods.

Impairment Loss is recognized when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

m. BORROWING COST

Borrowing cost attributable to the acquisition or construction of qualifying assets are capitalized as a part of such assets. All other borrowing costs are charged off to revenue.

A qualifying asset is an asset that necessarily requires a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale.

* Figures in Brackets Represents Figures for Previous Years

29 Confirmation of balances/reconciliation of accounts pertaining to certain advances/creditors/debtors is pending as at period end. Hence, the balances have been adopted as per the books of accounts.

30 Previous year's figures have been regrouped wherever necessary to conform to current period's classification.

31 Consequent to the enactment of the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) and its applicability for accounting periods commencing from 1st April 2014, the Company has reassessed the remaining useful life of fixed assets in accordance with the provisions prescribed under Schedule II to the Act. There are no assets which have completed their useful life. In case of other assets, the carrying value (Net of Residual Value) is being depreciated over the revised remaining useful life. The depreciation and amortization expenses charged for year ended would have been lower by Rs. 15,638/-, had the company continued with the previous assessment of useful life of such assets.
